Strategic Partnership Unveiled Between JSfirm.com and Latino Pilots Association

Roanoke, Texas (February 7, 2024) - JSfirm.com and Latino Pilots Association join forces to provide students with the ability to search for open aviation career opportunities.

Founded in 2015, the Latino Pilots Association is a nonprofit organization committed to its mission to: INSPIRE, MENTOR, and DEVELOP the Latin Aerospace and Aviation Communities, further eliminating socio-economic barriers through representation, financial support, education, and mentorship.

Devin Rodrigues, Development Director for the Latin Pilots Association shared, "This strategic partnership with JSfirm.com allows us to provide our members with the tools to locate opportunities within the aerospace industry to further their careers. We are excited to work with their team to bring those opportunities to our community members."

Laurie Elliott, Partnership Manager for JSfirm.com said, "This collaboration aims to break barriers and cultivate inclusivity by providing the Latin/a/e/o/x community with unparalleled access to a diverse array of aviation jobs. Our commitment goes beyond horizons, ensuring that every aspiring individual, irrespective of background, can soar to new heights in the dynamic world of aviation."

Members of the Latin Pilots Association can now browse open jobs directly on their website. To view the job postings page, visit: <https://www.latinopilot.org/jsfirmjobboard>

Any aviation schools, programs, or associations interested in becoming a JSfirm.com Job Distribution Partner can contact Laurie directly at laurie@jsfirm.com.
