JSfirm.com Job Distribution Network Celebrates 50th Job Distribution Partner

Roanoke, Texas (February 29, 2024) - JSfirm.com reaches a major milestone of 50 Job Distribution Network (JDN) Partners.

JSfirm.com has worked tirelessly to cultivate a solid foundation of strong partnerships with industry-relevant companies. These partnerships are all part of the Job Distribution Network on JSfirm.com, which allows companies to display open aviation jobs on their website. With a mutually beneficial agreement, both JSfirm.com and their partners harvest the advantages of driving job seekers to browse open positions across a multitude of outlets. As of recently, the number of partners has grown to 50 and counting!

This achievement marks a substantial expansion of the reach JSfirm.com has within the aviation industry. The Job Distribution Network facilitates a seamless distribution of job listings across a wide network of aviation-related schools and organizations, enhancing visibility for employers and job seekers alike. The addition of the 50th partner underscores JSfirm.com's commitment to providing comprehensive and effective solutions for connecting aviation professionals with job opportunities. As the aviation workforce continues to evolve, JSfirm.com's continued growth and collaboration with diverse partners solidify its position as a key player in the aviation career sector.

"We would like to extend our gratitude to each of our partners who continue to see the importance of displaying jobs on their website. Reaching this milestone has been a true testament to our team's dedication to ensuring all aviation jobs are in front of the most relevant people," Abbey Hutter, Executive Director of JSfirm.com commented.

Any aviation schools, programs, or associations interested in becoming a JSfirm.com Job Distribution Partner can contact Laurie Elliot, Partnership Manager at JSfirm.com directly at laurie@jsfirm.com.

Note: You can stop by and see JSfirm.com at Booth #8506 at HAI Heli-Expo February 27-29 at the Anaheim Convention Center in Anaheim, California.
