JSfirm.com - 143% Increase in Job Openings

Roanoke, Texas (March 7, 2023) - The start of 2023 is trending upwards like no other year to date for JSfirm.com (HELI-EXPO Booth C2204). The number of hiring companies and job seekers actively utilizing JSfirm.com have far surpassed numbers from any previous year.

Compared to 2022, JSfirm.com has seen a 105.76% increase in applicant flow due to people changing jobs for better opportunities. This includes applications for all aspects of the aviation industry, including maintenance, avionics, management, engineering, pilots, sales, etc. JSfirm.com confidently predicts they will continue to see an increase in applications through the remainder of the first quarter and most likely throughout 2023. Likewise, the number of overall companies advertising on JSfirm.com has increased by 143.16% compared to 2022.

JSfirm.com attributes the significant increase in activity (from job seekers and companies alike) to the overall demand for qualified professionals in the aviation industry. Executive Director, Abbey Hutter said, "Companies who have traditionally not had a problem making hires are now turning to our website to increase their applicant flow." She added, "It's so competitive right now, companies literally can't keep up with what their competitors are offering."
