JSfirm.com Partners with the School of Missionary Aviation Technology (SMAT)

Roanoke, Texas (April 1, 2024) - JSfirm.com announces their newest Job Distribution Network partner, the School of Missionary Aviation Technology (SMAT).

The School of Missionary Aviation Technology (SMAT) provides mission-driven students with FAA-certified aircraft maintenance and flight training. SMAT offers a professional, certified curriculum in a warm and friendly atmosphere. Students benefit from small class sizes in which strong, lasting relationships are built with instructors and fellow students.

Laurie Elliott, Partnership Manager for JSfirm.com shared, "We are thrilled to provide a resource for students and alumni of the School of Missionary Aviation Technology (SMAT) to seamlessly browse a multitude of open job opportunities within the aviation industry. Furthermore, we think this can open up a gateway for aspiring aviation professionals, enabling them to jumpstart their careers."

Terry Yoder, President and CEO of SMAT commented, "This partnership provides another layer of service to and for SMAT students and alumni. We are grateful for the opportunity to partner with JSfirm.com in a way that will benefit our future and current students, as well as our alumni as they strive to bring the values of caring relationships, excellence, stewardship, and servant leadership into the aviation workplace."

Through this partnership, SMAT students can search for the latest aviation career opportunities directly on SMAT's website. To view SMAT's job postings page, visit: <https://smat.edu/jobs/>

Any aviation schools or programs interested in becoming a JSfirm.com partner can contact Laurie directly at laurie@jsfirm.com.
