JSfirm.com Awards Aerospace Engineering Scholarship

Roanoke, Texas (April 16, 2021) - JSfirm.com awarded an Aerospace Engineering scholarship to a deserving student from the Central Florida Aerospace Academy. Robert Landen Kincart, successfully completed the application process and impressed a JSfirm.com Managing Partner during a recent telephone interview. Last night, April 15th, during the SUN 'n FUN Annual Birthday Bash, Robert, who goes by Landen, was officially presented with the JSfirm.com Aerospace Engineering Scholarship.

Landen is a senior at Central Florida Aerospace Academy (CFAA). Through his education at CFAA, he was able to explore topics in Engineering, Robotics, Aerospace, Avionics, Unmanned Systems, JROTC, and Airframe & Powerplant. During his time at CFAA, Landen has obtained his Part 107 Remote Pilot Certification, Solidworks Certification and received an Airframe & Powerplant internship through the Aerospace Center for Excellence. He will be continuing his education in Aerospace Engineering this fall at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.

Abbey Hutter, Executive Director of JSfirm.com, said, "Having the opportunity to present Landen with the JSfirm.com Aerospace Engineering scholarship was an honor. This CFAA student is going to do great things with his future." She continued, "JSfirm.com remains committed to helping sustain the aviation industry by supporting the future of aviation through education. We are truly honored to recognize the hard work of stellar aviation students such as Landen."
