

AOPA ANNOUNCES NEW JOB DISTRIBUTION PARTNERSHIP WITH JSFIRM.COM

FREDERICK, MD –The Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) announced a partnership with JSfirm.com for job seekers to find the latest career and aviation opportunities directly from AOPA's website.

"AOPA is thrilled to be collaborating with JSfirm.com," said AOPA Senior Vice President of Marketing Jiri Marousek. "Encouraging more people to take advantage of the many opportunities offered in aviation is one of our goals and providing tools like a job search feature on our website will allow easy access for those looking for careers in the industry."

"When AOPA approached JSfirm.com on creating a dynamic job board for the AOPA website, the timing couldn't have been better for our industry," said Abbey Hutter, Marketing Coordinator for JSfirm.com. "Combining the common interests of the world's largest aviation association with the most-recommended and largest aviation-only job website is a perfect fit."

As global economies continue to expand, demand is growing for aviation industry jobs. Boeing's 2017 job outlook forecasted a need for 637,000 new commercial pilots, 648,000 new maintenance technicians and 839,000 new cabin crew within the next 20 years. And as the largest aviation association in the world, AOPA is well positioned to help match potential employees with businesses across the country and around the world.

"Our mission has always been sustainment and investment in the future of the aviation industry," added Hutter. "Partnering with important associations like AOPA illustrates our continued commitment."

All jobs posted on JSfirm.com will be immediately available on AOPA's website. AOPA's job search function allows job seekers to filter results by keyword, company name, location, and job type. To view AOPA's job search page visit <https://jobs.aopa.org>
