Aviation job search through General Aviation News

Roanoke, Texas (July 22, 2016) - JSfirm.com and General Aviation News have created a Job Distribution Partnership. Now, in addition to providing up-to-the-minute, factual details about all aspects of general aviation, a person can search all aviation jobs directly from General Aviation News' website.

"Since 1949, General Aviation News has been delivering information about the world of general aviation to anyone interested in aviation," said Ben Sclair, Publisher of General Aviation News. "Providing a unique and comprehensive aviation job search function on our site will help maintain a strong pulse in the industry."

"This partnership helps sustain our industry by promoting job opportunities through industry leading outlets like General Aviation News," said Sam Scanlon, Managing Partner for JSfirm.com. "It's all of our responsibility to uphold our industry by constantly promoting new career opportunities to students and industry professionals every day!"

The search functionality on General Aviation News is unique and allows job seekers to narrow results by category, key word, location or company name - all from their website.
