JSfirm.com: Pin your Hometown to Support Young Eagles

Roanoke, Texas (July 25, 2023) - JSfirm.com (Booth C15), the leading aviation job website, announced they will be donating to the EAA Young Eagles during EAA Airventure 2023. As part of its commitment to promoting youth involvement in aviation, JSfirm.com will be launching an exciting and interactive initiative to support the Young Eagles program.

For every pin placed on a map at the JSfirm.com (Booth C15), they will donate $1 to the Young Eagles program. The initiative aims to raise funds and awareness for the organization, with the sole mission to introduce and inspire kids to the world of aviation. Today, over 2.3 million young people have enjoyed a free introductory flight through the Young Eagles program.

Abbey Hutter, Executive Director, said "We are passionate about supporting organizations and programs that encourage future young aviators. We invite all EAA AirVenture attendees to participate and contribute to the future of aviation." She added, "Stop by our booth and pin your hometown! It's fun to look at the map and see where everyone has traveled from (across the world) to get to Oshkosh, WI."

Don't miss the opportunity to participate, simply by pinning our map. Visit the JSfirm.com booth C15 at the Career Center during AirVenture 2023 and help us support EAA's Young Eagles.
