Business Aviation Survey: Hiring Demand On the Rise

Roanoke, TX (October 16, 2018) JSfirm.com, the leading aviation job website, has completed its annual Business Aviation Survey. 279 Business Aviation personnel participated this year. Compared to 2017, flight hours have increased (+12%) and more companies report being impacted by the pilot shortage (+26%). Jeff Richards, Operations Manager for JSfirm.com said, "There has never been a better time to join the aviation industry." He added, "Over half of the companies surveyed reported a continuous increase in flight hours, while the shortage of pilots is impacting their operations. The pilot hiring demand will continue to trend upwards for years to come."

2018 Business Aviation Survey Results:

- 279 companies were surveyed
- 67% are experiencing an increase in flight hours
- 62% report operations are being impacted by the pilot shortage
